SOVIETS NOT PLEASED WITH PLAN OF POWERS FOR RECONSTRUCTION

Document Does Not Recognize the Soviet Government and Ignores the Suggestion of Government Loans—Representatives Say That Russia Expected Loan from Powers

(By The Associated Press)

GENOA, May 3.—The soviet plenipotentiaries are "not delighted" with the project of the powers for the reconstruction of Russia. Such is the brief summary emanating from soviet sources of the Bolshevik views on the memorandum on which Europe's statesmen have worked so laboriously.

The fact that the document does not mention the recognition of the soviet government and ignores the suggestion of governmental loans is said to displease the communist leaders who are now conferring with Moscow.

The memorandum was delivered to them only at 4 o'clock this morning. Belgium has not signed the memorandum and word was received this evening that France had determined to stand by Belgium but there is no official announcement here of France's action. It is believed that the conversations between Premier Poincare and M. Barthou, however, will have an important general effect on the conference.

All the leaders expressed satisfaction at today's plenary session, believing it embodied the inauguration of far reaching efforts to improve the finances of Europe. The financial code at Genoa has been written, declared Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, chairman of the financial commission and he believed it would prove as important as the historic Justinian civil code, the basis of world jurisprudence.

The essential points are limitation of the issue of paper money, fixing parity with gold, economizing in the use of gold, and co-ordination of gold. The United States said the chairman with almost half the worlds gold could join in the future study of the problems without involving itself in political difficulties and could help Europe as well as herself.

Uphold Commission

Tchercherin upheld the rights of communism and declared it was impossible for Russia to renounce its control over exchange operations, despite the fact that the financial report characterized this control as mischevious.

The financial report like the memorandum of the powers to the Russians emphasizes that assistance to disorganized countries should take the form of private, not governmental credits.

M. Tchertcherin insisted on government loans and in this endorsed the views of M. Rakovsky, who had declared publicly that the soviet as the Russian government expected a loan from the powers.

M. Tchertcherin voiced the conviction that it was only by economic collaboration of two worlds whose policy is based on different economic systems, that mankind could move towards reconstruction and peace.

STATES ATTORNEY IS INSTRUCTED TO DRAW INDICTMENTS

This Announcement Made at Rushville Late Yesterday

(By The Associated Press)

RUSHVILLE, Ill., May 3—Recess of the Schuyler county grand jury until Saturday morning was taken late this afternoon. All witnesses called had been questioned and while lacking official confirmation the rumor traced back to members of the jury was that thirty true bills had been voted.

This report gained credence when it was pointed out that it would take until Saturday morning for the state's attorney's office to prepare that number of indictments.

Paul Morning, the state's attorney declined to say anything but that the grand jury has adourned until Saturday morning.

It was also rumored that the recess of the jury would give time for the removal of twenty nine of the section gang from Jacksonville jail to county jail in Rushville so that they may be presented in court for arraignment immediately after the indictments are returned.

The reported action of the jury was contrary to expectations and the report of county officials, who declared this morning that it seemed no indictments at all might be returned.

While the grand jury was concluding its session the county board of supervisors elected a successor of the late Sheriff Lashbrook to serve out the unexpired term. The man named is Whitney Ingalls, of Camden, a prominent Republican of the county.

State's Attorney Paul Morning of Schuyler county has been instructed to draw indictments against the thirty Greek railroad laborers, charging either manslaughter or murder, according to a statement made late today by Judge uy R. Williams of the Schuyler county circuit court.

JUST ONE THING AFTER ANOTHER FOR FARMERS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 3.—It's just one thing after another for the farmers in the middle west, it was indicated by report summarized today by the weather bureau in its weekly weather and crop review. These reports for several weeks have said farm preparations were being delayed by rain and now, altho the rain has stopped, the review said it "was mostly too cool in Central and Southern states for best germination and development of spring crops."

Winter grains and grass in the Central States made satisfactory progress the review stated. Sowing of oats in the northern states during the period covered by the review, the week ending yesterday made satisfactory progress due to more favorable weather but owing to the previous unfavorable weather which caused great delay in this work it was stated that a considerable decrease in acreage was indicated.

The review said additional damage to fruit was reported from some Upper Ohio Valley and Appallachian districts.

OKLAHOMA BANK CASE POSTPONED

(By The Associated Press)

OKMULGEE, Okla, May 3.—District Judge Bozarth this afternoon postponed until the opening of the June term of court June 5. the arraignment of Gov. J. B. A. Robertson and 14 others indicted in connection with state bank failures in the county. This action was taken after the court had overruled a motion by attorneys for John H. Reibold a defendant to disqualify Judge Bozarth in trying the case.

In postponing the arraignment, the judge announced that Governor Robertson had communicated with him by telephone from Oklahoma City asking that his arraignment be postponed until tomorrow because his attendance at the meeting of the state board of equalization was necessary. The court said it would be unnecessary to try to proceed further until the opening of the next term. The motion to qualify Judge Bozarth contended that because of his official and social relations with a majority of people he had created a general prejudice against officers and former officers of financial institutions which have failed in the county he could not preside over the trial fairly.

BUTTER MARKET WEAK AND UNSETTLED

CHICAGO, May 3—There was still a surplus of supplies today and the butter market continued weak and unsettled. Top grades were cleaned up in fair shape with 92 mostly at 35, but some sales were reported at 1-2c concession. Medium grades were plentiful and hard to sell and dealers generally took the buyers' prices rather than miss a sale. Butter scored 87 and was under selling at a very wide range in prices depending upon the quality. Butter containing garlic or weed sold generally at 24 to 28 cents. The car market was dull.

ORDER PROMISED OUT OF CHAOS IN ILLINOIS RATES

Commerce Commission Promises to Bring This About

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 3.—Order out of chaos in the matter of Illinois freight rates was promised by the Illinois Commerce Commission today when it called upon the attorney general to take immediate steps to have dissolved the federal injunction restraining the state from supervising freight rates and hearing complaints.

"Since the federal government took control of such matters on June 25, 1918," an announcement by the commission said, "conditions have gone from bad to worse. There has been no redress for any shipper who had a complaint for overcharge, discrimination or the like. By an interloctuory injunction the federal court restrained the commission from any sort of supervision of charges, altho maintaiinng supervision of service."

As soon as this injunction is dissolved and it is expected within a very few days, the Illinois Commerce Commission will resume its functions in the matter of regulating intrastate rates and of hearing complaints of discriminations and overcharges. This is a matter in which every shipper of the state is vitally interested particularly in the restored authority of the commission to take hold of and straighten out the tangled mess and particularly switching rates, which has come thru nearly four years' absence of any sort of regulation.

"The vacation of the federal injunction," the commission's statement says, "will bring to an end one of the most remarkable conflicts between the railroads and federal and state regulatory bodies the country has witnessed."

SAMUEL GOMPERS DENOUNCES THE 18TH AMENDMENT

Labor Leader Says It Has Undermined Labor's Morality

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 3—Samuel Gompers, veteran president of the American Federation of Labor speaking tonight to a crowd at a mass meeting called by the New York branch of the Association against the Prohibition Amendment, declared that labor must make the fight now and "we will never stop fighting until the rights of the people have been restored to them."

He was cheered by crowds both inside and outside the big pavilion, the latter hearing speakers thru voice amplifiers. The meeting was largely attended by members of union labor. There also were men prominent in the city's business and financial circles. A large part of the audience was composed of women.

"I have always had faith in the future of my country, but with prohibition I am apprehensive of that future," Mr. Gompers said. "Temperance was the rule of the great mass of organized labor, but the prohibitionists and the so called anti-saloon Leaguers have done more to undermine the morality and temperance of the working man than any agency I know. I have traveled all over the United States before prohibition including its so called dry territory and today as I pass thru these sections I have found more drunkenness than ever before."

"There are no stronger or more powerful supporters of the Volstead act than the distillers and bootleggers," Mr. Gompers declared to the accompaniment of vociferious applause.

RUSSIA OWES US ABOUT ONE BILLION

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 3.—Russia's obligation to the United States were estimated at from $700,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 today by local bankers who have been making a close study of the proceedings of the Genoa conference. While accurate statistics are not available this estimate is said to include that country's debt both to the government and to private American enterprises and banks.

Russia's debt to the United States government is slightly more than $210,000,000 including two advances under the Liberty Loan act. The first advance to the Kerensky government was $97,000,000 and the second $90,229,750. No interest has been paid on these obligations.

MAN WHO GOT JOB FOR WATTS SAYS HE HAD IT COMING

Graham of Illinois Talks to Congress About Dismissal

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 3. — Approving the action of Attorney General Daugherty in ordering the dismissal of W. O. Watts, special agent of the department of justice, Representative Graham, Republican, Illinois, who got the job for him, declared in the house today that Watts "had it coming."

Speaking as chairman of the house committee of the last congress which investigated the conduct of the war, Mr. Graham said there was nothing else for Mr. Daugherty to do under the circumstances. Watts was removed for disloyalty to the department, after he had furnished certain information relating to cases growing out of the alleged war contracts to Representative Johnson, Republican, south Dakota, a member of the committee of which Mr. Graham was the head.

Would Destroy Morale.

To retain the special agent, the Illinois representative asserted, would "absolutely destroy the morale of the employes in the most confidential department of the government."

During the long investigation by the Graham committee, Mr. Watts, a resident of Tennessee, was a major in the army and later was employed by the committee as an investigator. Because of his "faithful work" Mr. Graham said he recommended his employment by the attorney general, "vouching for him in the most positive terms as a trustworthy, intelligent and reliable man."

"The house can imagine my chagrin and embarrassment," said Mr. Graham, "when I found that recently Major Watts being dissatisfied with conditions in the department without consultation with his superiors absolutely ignoring the ethics of the situation and in gross violation of his trust had made public a large amount of the information about pending matters in the department which he had obtained by virtue of his success to the confidental files."

M'CORMICK FAMILY HAVE NOTHING TO SAY

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 3.— Confirmation of the reported estrangement between Miss Mithalde McCormick daughter of Harold F. McCormick and Max Oser, her fiancee and former Swiss riding master, was refused at the McCormick home tonight.

"Miss McCormick and Oser have announced their engagement; that should be enough," said Howard W. Colby, intimate friend of the family.

Mr. Colby asserted that "we have decided to keep still and just let the papers print anything they want to."

He added that neither himself nor anyone else was authorized to speak for Miss McCormick and that Miss McCormick had no statement to make at the present time.

"Miss Mathilde has not seen anybody today," said a statement issued from the McCormick home. "She has made no statements."

MURDERS GIRL; CLAIMS WHISKEY WAS THE CAUSE

Iowa Youth Shoots Girl Then Tries to Rob Bank

(By The Associated Press)

NORTH WOOD Iowa, May 3.—A pint of bootleg whisky, a girl's refusal to attend a party with him tonight and a loaded gun all figure in a tragedy that today is stirring the entire neighborhood here.

Miss Rebecca Nelson, a rural school teacher and said to be the prettiest girl in Northern Iowa is dead, slain by Irvin Bonker, a farmer youth whose overtures she is said to have spurned. Bonker is under arrest and mob violence is feared by officers who have him in custody.

"I killed her," sobbed the youth "as the effects of the liquor began to wear away. "I killed her, but it was the whiskey that made me do it."

His confession was made to Roy Bosworth, county attorney.

Following the shooting which occurred in the school house near here, and in plain sight of the children in the school room, Banker leaped into his automobile and speeding to Manly made an unsuccessful attempt to holdup the Farmers' Savings Bank there.

As he entered the door he leveled his gun at Cashier Schulte and pulled the trigger. There was only a noiseless click as the cartridge dropped to the floor. The other bank employes grappled with the crazed youth overpowering him and leading him to the jail. He was later removed to the jail here for safe keeping.

First Claims Accident.

Bonker first claimed the school tragedy to have been accidental but later he confessed to having killed the girl who with her sister, Amy, is the sole support of an aged mother.

"I gave her the gun," he first told the county attorney, "and asked that she kill me. She refused and in handing the revolver back it was accidentally discharged."

He later repudiated this story and told the officers that the receipt of a letter from the dead girl in which she had refused to attend a party with him tonight had caused him to seek her at the school to "talk it over."

Bonker saw service in the United States navy during the recent world war.

ARMED MARCHERS HELPED THEMSELVES

(By The Associated Press)

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 3 Proprietors of stores from which men engaged in the armed march last year obtained shoes, clothing and groceries were among the 13 witnesses heard today in circuit court where William Blizzard is being tried for treason.

Other testimony covered many incidents of the march and fighting and in great part was in corroboration of the evidence previously heard.

Nation Haddad, whose general store is at Clothier, started the list of complaining merchants with a report of more than $1,000 worth of shoes gone, but not paid for, A. B. Browning, who had a general store at Blair estimated $2,000 as his loss, and Mike August, Blair grocer, fixed $372 as the value of his goods, but said that this year he had received a check for that amount in payment.

Haddad said many of the armed men who he saw in Clothier came into his store to get shoes, riding breeches and leggings and they said to charge these goods to the "local" but not knowing which local, he could not collect. He knew Phillip Murray international vice president of the United Mine Workers and saw him a few days, Murray promising that he would pay for the shoes, according to his attorney.

CHAIRMAN HULL IS KIDDING HIMSELF ON INDIANA PRIMARY

Says it is Repudiation of the Administration of Harding

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 3. — Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic National committee declared in a statement tonight that "the reported victory of Albert J. Beveridge over Senator New in the Indiana senatorial primaries by a decisive majority is a plan and emphatic repudiation of the Harding administration and Senator New's part therein by the Republicans of Indiana."

"Senator New's campaign from beginning to end" said Mr. Hull, "was made a test of the Harding administration, President Harding has been his silent ally and he has had the tacit support of every member of the administration. * * * The effect of Senator New's defeat upon the Harding administration must necessarily prove embarrassing and humiliating if not disastrous. If Republican voters will not stand for the administration it can scarcely be expected that Republican senators who are candidates for re-election and Republican congressmen can be expected to remain loyal.

"The people of Indiana ought to find it much easier to make a choice between ex-Governor Samuel M. Ralston, who won the Democratic nomination and Beveridge than it was for the Indiana Republicans to choose between Senator New and Mr. Beveridge. Governor Ralston is as much more progressive than Mr. Beveridge as Mr. Beveridge was more progressive than Senator New."

EXPECT TO HAVE COMPLETE JURY SOME TIME TODAY

Attorneys Working Hard to Secure the Final Member

(By The Associated Press)

WAUKEGAN, Ill., May 3—The jury to try Governor Len Small, charged with conspiracy to embezzle state funds will be completeld tomorrow probably before noon, lawyers predicted tonight. Twice the twelfth man apparently had been found but each time the state exercised an eleventh hour peremptory challenge and the work started again.

The state has now exhausted seven of its ten peremptories and the defense has six left.

Mrs. Small was at the defense lawyer's table today and followed the questioning of prospective jurors closely. Frequently she conferred with the governor and Alexander Beaubein, one of his attorneys. She occasionally suggested questions to be asked after searching the face of the man under examination for some clue as to his probable feelings.

A record for the eight days of the trial was set today when 28 men passed thru the box. Ten were examined in the first 25 minutes eight being challenged by the state for having fixed opinions and two failing on the educational test. Court adjourned early this afternoon when the available venire had been exhausted. Seventy-five men hae been summoned for tomorrow.

The eleven men locked up tonight include eight married men, two bachelors and a widower. Their average age is 33 years, the eldest being 56 years and the youngest 26.

If the twelfth man is obtained tomorrow morning State's Attorney Mortimer of Sangamon county probably will deliver his opening statement in the afternoon and the taking of evidence will start Friday morning.

CORN BEING DISTRIBUTED WITH GREAT RAPIDITY

Chicago, May 3.—Corn is being distributed this season with a rapidity which is said to be unprecedented.

GOVERNMENT TO CO-OPERATE WITH VARIOUS STATES

Will Ask Help in Regulation of Railroad Rates

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 3.—In association with representatives of all the state railway and utilities commissions the interstate commerce commission it was announced today has agreed upon a plan for cooperation of federal and state regulatory bodies in consideration of transportation difficulties. Details were made public in a statement issued by the joint committee of the National Association of Railway and Utilities Commissioners headed by Chairman W. L. Jackson of Minnesota, and by the commission headed by Chairman McChord. The ends sought will be reached chiefly by a system of joint hearings and conferences involving both the federal commission and the commission of a particular state when complaints involving matters of common interests are brought forward.

"The federal and state commissions were alike created in the public interest the statements said after mentioning differences and litigation which have arisen over conflict in jurisdiction and have a common purpose; namely the maintenance of a transportation system which will best meet the public interest. * * * * * The prime essential to such cooperation is realization of the natural difficulties of the common problem.

"The state commissions realize the railroads form a national transportation system which is not split into parts by state lines. * * * * * The interstate commission realizes there is danger of over-centralization of authority * * * * * and that state commissions are often better informed than itself with regard to local conditions and local needs."

Should Arrange Conference

Altho suggesting that "time and experience may be required" for developing cooperation, the joint committee proposed that "where petitions are filed alleging that state rates unjustly discriminate against interstate commerce," the state commission and the federal body should arrange a conference. Later, where practicable, the complaints or petitions it said, should be brought to a joint hearing.

Controversy over interstate rates where of interest to a state commission should be treated similarly, it was sadded and the conferences extended to include groups of state commissions concerned if necessary. The report concluded that in cases brought by a state commission its members would not expect or desire to participate in a judicial capacity, with the interstate commission.

A constant and mutual exchange of information between the state and federal authorities and conferences over "development of railroad car service, distribution and administration," were further arranged.

In the several weeks previous to its issuance, the federal commission had dismissed or vacated a number of orders involving solely state rates, upon understandings with state commissions which have assumed jurisdiction and have used their own authority to order adjustments suggested by the commission.

The free clinics which have for several years been a part of the public health work in Decatur have been abandoned because of the opposition of physicians, who refuse longer to aid in the work. Just the exact reason for the action has not been made known, but there is the suspicion that these physicians felt that work was being done in the clinics which should properly have been a part of their private practice.

It can be said to the credit of Morgan county medical men that they rave always kept self interest in the background and have worked earnestly for public health programs, which if successful, must of necessity lessen the need for their services.

The season is not yet far advanced but already the benefits of the patrol system are seen on Morgan county roads. There are about 200 miles of state aid roads in the county, operating under the patrol system. Men interested in road work have been selected by the county board and it is the belief that the system will show continuous good results. At any rate, the patrolmen are to be retained as long as the showing is satisfactory.

The story of Mrs. Bunnell, an Indiana woman, is inspiring. Because of an injured spine this woman has been an invalid confined to her room for nearly thirty years. During that time she has built up two profitable lines of business, which she directs by telephone.

Her motive has in it a wonderful lesson for all humanity. Mrs. Bunnell turned her thoughts to business and multiplied her cares and responsibilities in order to forget her aches and pains.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES

(Chicago Journal of Commerce)

When the economist says war is waste we accept the fact. When national taxation figures are published we are startled, and wonder if we are working for war or for peace.—The New York Evening Mail.

We pay now $33.39 a head for federal purposes—$133.56 for the average family of four for the year which begins July 1 next. Of the $33.39 for each person, $12.79 goes on the federal debt, $6.73 on veterans' pensions, $4.11 on the navy, and $3.52 on the army—a total of $27.15 for war, leaving only $6.24 for other purposes. And of this small amount $2.27 is deducted for officials of the treasury, leaving but $3.97 for the uses of peaceful progresses—less than one-eighth of the total federal tax for each person.

These are terrible figures, to which each family must add local taxes, municipal, county and state.

While war is the great culprit that places such burdens on our shoulders, we must remember that its heavy assessments hold us down and make impossible the promotion of a score of benefits the nation might enjoy otherwise. War is the most inveterate enemy of prosperity and comfort the world has ever known.

VIOLIN AND PIANO RECITAL AT I. W. C.

Miss Suzanne Rinehart and Miss Grace Styles Heard in Pleasing Program Wednesday Afternoon

A most enjoyable recital was given yesterday afternoon in Music Hall, I. W. C., by Suzanne Rinehart, violinist, pupil of Miss Horsbrugh, and Miss Grace Styles, pupil of Director Ward Pearson.

Those two young women acquitted themselves in a manner which must have been very gratifying to their teachers and friends. Miss Rinehart's principal number was the beautiful classic sonata in G minor by Tartini. The others were Wieniawski's Legende, Precieusa Couperin-Kriesler, Song of India, Kreisler, and Mazurka de concert, Hoesche. The violinist's performance was characterized by variety of shading, good tone, assurance and a very pleasing stage presence.

Miss Styles was first heard in a group of three pieces, Whims, by Schumann, Scherzando, Beecher, Valse Mignonne, by Palmgren. Her second group consisted of the Allegro Moderato and Andante movements from the Grieg in E minor.

Miss Styles has a clear technic, a musical touch, an excellent rythm. She played with freedom and lack of self - consciousness. Miss Grace Terhune in the role of accompanist was both sympathetic and musicianly.

AUTOMOTIVE MEN MAKE DONATIONS

Local Association Shows Liberality in Contributing to Worthy Causes—Much Business Transacted at Meeting Last Night.

At its regular meeting Wednesday night at the Dunlap hotel, the Jacksonville Automotive Dealers association authorized the following contributions made from funds realized during the recent auto show and merchants and manufacturers exposition, checks for which will be sent out by the secretary this week:

East State street paving project	$25.00
Our Savior's hospital charity fund	25.00
Social Service League, charity fund	25.00
Passavant hospital, charity fund	25.00
Salvation Army, local work fund	25.00
Oak Lawn Sanitarium, for daily papers	25.00

At a previous meeting of the association $25 each was authorized to be paid to the Meredosia bridge renewal fund, the Morton avenue pavement extension and flood relief fund.

The meeting held last night is the first held since the show, postponement having been made from time to time due to the illness of J. G. Berger, the association's president. Mr. Berger was present but after expressing his great appreciation for the assistance of the members in helping to make the show the splendid success that it undoubtedly was, he turned the active conduct of the meeting over to C. M. Strawn, vice president.

Reports of the secretary and treasurer showed the association to be in a flourishing condition. All outstanding accounts in connection with the recent show have been paid and a surplus shown of about one thousand dollars which amount the board of directors have been authorized to invest in desirable interest bearing securities, which may be readily converted, pending the outcome of the proposed coliseum for Jacksonville, when the association stands as one man ready to do its part. Mr. Cook reported that the committee in charge of the coliseum project was still at work and had made some progress but fedt that it was now time for some of the public spirited citizens of Jacksonville to get into the movement with them in an endeavor to secure an option on a suitable site in order that plans could be made for the final financing of such a building. It has been intimated that several individual emmbers of the auto association stand ready to subscribe a thousand dollars each to the fund when the matter reaches the stage outlined.

As has been stated, the association now has about one thousand dollars ready for this proposed coliseum and is ready to co-operate with individuals or other societies to the end that Jacksonville may have a public building capable of holding five thousand people and of handling anything in the way of shows, conventions athletic meets, etc., and feels from its study of the situation and the city's needs that once such a building is ready there will be no question about its becoming self supporting.

There was a general discussion of business conditions and while the members felt that the past winter and spring had been peculiarly trying in many ways there was a general feeling of optimism and the belief that with settled weather everything would move along in a satisfactory manner.

The meeting last night was preceded by the usual six o'clock dinner served under the direction of Manager Rule and practically the entire membership was present.

Capt. Stiles eulogized Mr. Wolford as a soldier brave and true, and when volunteers were called to search and remove hidden bombs he was among the first to offer his services. His death was a blow to all of his comrades and for days they mourned the death of Charles.

"I gained sixteen pounds in three months after taking Tanlac," said Robert Waldy, 527 Western Ave., Topeka, Kans., employed at the Rick Island depot.

"For four years I suffered from stomach trouble and nervous indigestion. The little I ate filled me with gas and I got so dizzy it was all I could do to keep from falling. I was so nervous I often lay awake all night, and finally got so weak I was not able to do my work.

"After two bottles of Tanlac my appetite came back, and now I am in such fine shape I sleep well every night, have regained my strength and am on the job every day. Tanlac certainly put me on my fee and I am glad to tell others about it."

A letter was also read, which Mr. Tomlinson received from Jas. R. Smith, formerly of this city, but now at Fort Defiance, Arizona. His letter was in acknowledgement of $25 which the local Sunday School sent to the needy Navajo Indians in that locality.

Mr. Smith voices hearty thanks for the donation and said that the Navajo Tribe is the largest Indian Tribe in America, numbering near 36,000 people. They are nomads, living upon their flocks and herds. Their only religious leaders are the "Medicine Men" who are the greatest enemies of the Gospel. Now the Presbyterians, Baptist and Plymouth Brethern are doing missionary work among the Indians, which is very much needed.

REFUSES TO ACCEPT THE NOMINATIONS

Emmerson Holds Committee Did Not Comply With the Law

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 3.—Holding that the "new Republican county central committee of Cook county had not complied with the law, Secretary of State Emmerson today refused to accept the certificate of nomination of superior judges, signed by Charles R. Francis, committee chairman.

Mr. Emmerson held that the call for the Cook county convention at which the three judges were nominated was not filed within the time specified by law according to an opinion of Attorney General Brundage and that therefore the convention was not regular and the ticket it nominated is not the regular Republican ticket of Cook county.

The convention of the "old" committee of which Homer K. Galpin is chairman was held under a call issued within the time specified by the law and the nominees of this convention will therefore go on the ballot as the regular Republican nominees. Both conventions nominated the five sitting Democratic judges, William E. Denver, Martin M. Gridley, Charles A. McDonald, Joseph Sabath and John J. Sullivan.

The only way in which the names can be placed on the ballot is an independent by petition.

In his opinion to the Secretary of State Attorney General Brundage said that the law provides that the secretary of the county central committee shall file at least seventy days previous to the date of the election.

The call signed by Mr. Francis was presented for filing thirty days late under this provision of the law.

DEMOCRATS STILL WANT PEACE LEAGUE

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 3.—Theodore Marburg, former minister to Belgium asked the annual meeting of the Woodrow Wilson Democrats tonight if all that was done at the Washington conference could not have been accomplished, also under American leadership two years earlier, if the United States had entered the league of nations.

The senate's rejection of the league covenant, he called "the most tragic blunder our country has ever made."

"If the treaties that came out of Washington had been made with in the league" Mr. Marburg said, there would be some continuing central body charged with the duty and clothed with the power to punish violation of law" and this, he believed was lacking in the arms conference agreements.

The meeting adopted a resolution requesting Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, to call a conference of the Democratic party, to formulate a program and platform to serve as a basis for an appeal to the voters of the country.

FRANCE STANDS WITH BELGIUM.

PARIS, May3.— France sticks with Belgium on the policy toward the Russian soviet and M. Barthou will return to Genoa Friday having the full approval of the government. This announcement was made this afternoon at the conclusion of the cabinet meeting.

M. Barthou made a complete statement of the actions of the French delegation and the ministers went over the text of the memorandum to the soviet delegates. It was discovered that the seeming divergence between Premier Poincare and M. Barthou had disappeared.

Mr. Barthou has behind him the full cabinet in resisting any encroachment upon private property in Russia and has instructions to remain solidly in harmony with the Belgium delegation. The decision of the cabinet council is interpreted in official quarters as meaning that the provisional signature of the French delegation to the memorandum to the soviets is null and void.

OPERATORS REFUSE MINERS RESOLUTION

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 3.—Anthracite coal operators of the joint sub-committee on wage negotiations today refused to subscribe to a resolution offered by the miners calling upon federal officials to begin an immediate investigation of the anthracite industry from mine to consumer. Seven reasons were cited by the miners for calling upon the government at this time. They alleged that prices to the consumers were excessive, that reductions were essential to the public welfare; that profits in distribution and sale of the product were imperiling rights of capital and labor to fair returns; that freight rates were exhorbitant and designed to handicap producers now owning railroads; that fair rates to tide water would cut $2.63 a ton from the price to the consumer and that needless agencies for distribution added unwarranted margins of profit to retail prices.

(By The Associated Press)

Estimates obtained by the committe the report said showed that tax free securities now amount to between $10,000,000,000 and $18,000,000,000 and that the right to issue was "a constant temptation to issue in larger amounts than is necessary."

The report written by Representative Green, Republican, of Iowa, said the present system enables much property to escape taxation; that it unfairly discriminates between taxpayers; impedes private financing; discourages investment in new enterprises and creates social unrest.

CON CON VOTES TO GIVE HOME RULE TO CITIES

Municipal Ownership is Also Passed on Favorably

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 3—Home rule and municipal ownership were given to Chicago by the Illinois constitutional convention tonight by the adoption of sections of the Chicago and Cook county article. The home rule section was adopted by the vote of 73 members and the municipal ownership section was approved by a vote of 68 to 15.

Progress was made by the convention on other sections of the Chicago report before the session ended. Before taking up the Chicago report the convention practically disposed of the downstate sections of the judiciary article. Important sections approved abolished city courts and consolidates the probate any county courts in counties where both tribunals are in operation.

The convention defeated an amendment providing for the election of appellate court judges. Under the section as adopted judges of the appellate court are to be appointed by the supreme court.

A committee has completed a tenative draft providing for only six supreme districts instead of seven as at present with Cook county as a separate district and entitled to two justices. It is probable that the committee will submit its report to the convention tomorrow designating the various counties in the proposed supreme district.

COLLEGE BOY MADE ALUMINUM CHEAP

Discovered Inexpensive Way of Separating it From Other Elements— Reduce Price From $20 a Pound to 20 Cents a Pound.

CHICAGO—The aluminum pots used in cooking and which replaced the heavy iron kettles of a former day, the light and durable material used in airplane construction and even the wrapping on a chocalate bar, were made possible by a discovery that reduced the price of aluminum from twenty dollors a pound to twenty cents a pound.

Charles Hall, while yet a college boy, made the extensive use of this material possible.

It was known that aaluminum was light and malleable, that it had tensile strength beyond that of all metals with the exception of copper and iron; that it was a good conductor of electricity, that it tarnished but slightly, and that it occurred abundantly in combination with other elements; but an inexpensive process of separating it from such combinations was needed to make its use widespread.

Charles Hall knew that bauxite ores were plentiful; that they were not in much demand for other purposes and would consequently be cheap or comparatively so; and that suplies of it would be rapidly obtainable. Bauxite ores contain a higher percentage of aluminum. He also knew that other metals had been isolated with ease by electrolysis which had before that been obtained only with difficulty.

Besides aluminum and the elements which go to form water, beauxits ores contain some ferric oxide, which would invalidate the process. Hall got rid of this by heating it with sodium carbonate (washing soda). The ferric oxide (rough; "Venetian red") does not dissolve and can be filtered off. To get rid of the sodium in the solution, and to precipitate the aluminum compound, carbon dioxide gas is passed through the solution. The aluminum compound precipitates; it is then heated to drive off the water, giving an oxide of aluminum.

Hall dissolved this oxide of aluminum in a bed of molten cryolite, placed in a chamber lined with carbon. This lining formed the negative pole, carbon rods projecting into the mass formed the positive poles. The electrical current decomposes the oxide. The molten metal sinks to the bottom and is drawn off periodically. The oxygen united with the carbon of the pole, forming carbon dioxide which passed into the air.

Charles Hall discovered this while he was working for a Master's degree. The first piece that he obtained by the process was about the size of a button and about an inch in diameter.. In exultation he had carried that bit of metal to the man from whom he had learned most of his chemistry, and it was that bit of evidence coupled with the fact that his professor remembered the day on which it had occurred, that saved his patent for him.

ARMSTRONG'S Drug Store

Make Remarkable Offer to Any Person in Jacksonville Who Is Weak, Sick, Nervous or Run-Down

It It Now Possible for You to Came to This Store, Buy a Regular $1.10 Package of Nuxated Iron, Use it for Two Weeks, and It At the End of That Time You Have Not Received All, and Even Greater Benefits Than You Expect, Simply Bring the Wrapper Back to Armstrong's Drug Store, and We Will Cheerfully Hand You Back Your Money

Jacksonville people may well ask how we can afford to make this remarkable "Satisfaction or Money Back" offer. Medical examinations by physicians all over the country show that an amazing number of people lack 100% iron in their blood. At a recent conference, Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Out Door Department), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, said, "Without iron, the blood becomes weak, thin, pale and watery. In many people this so seriously weakens their vital organs as to lead them to believe that they have heart or stomach trouble, kidney disease, nerve force exhaustion or some other serious ailment. I have had people come to me thinking they had heart trouble, because they often had pains and palpitation of the heart, sudden dizziness, faintness or spots before the eyes. In a great many of these cases, the moment iron was supplied, all of these symptoms disappeared." We make this offer because Genuine Nuxated Iron contains true organic iron like the iron in your blood. So many people are deficient in iron who would surely be benefited by this remarkable remedy, that we recommend that you come right down to Armstrong's Drug Store and get your bottle of Nuxated Iron. Use it for two weeks, and note the improvement in your own case in strength, energy and endurance. If you are not more than surprised at the results, just bring back the wrapper and we will promptly refund your money without question.

How to Make Child-birth Easier!

DO YOU wish to know how thousands and thousands of women have gone thru motherhood without knowing some of the pains and discomforts incident to childbirth? Listen to this:

Motherhood creates almost a new state of being for a woman.

As a result, new nerves, those heretofore restful and quiescent, spring into activity, they cry out, they tingle, they burn in their unrest.

The network of nerves across the abdomen, the loins, the back and other parts now become supersensitive. All these nerves are being called on to perform unusual duties.

These nerves must be pacified and comforted & must be put in condition for the crisis that is pending.

If these nerves are not soothed and quieted, they may set up aggravated nerve tension, increasing in severity from month to month, sometimes even culminating in a nervous paralysis of the back and limbs. This leaves the mother-to-be in a condition where she is unable, fully, to meet the test when the climax of maternity arrives.

Mother's Friend is used externally as a massage; and its purpose, thru daily use, is to gradually, gently and effectively relax the muscles and nerves involved in the function of child-bearing; to make the skin soft, pliable and elastic so that it may expand easily and naturally as the abdominal parts enlarge—thereby relieving the tension and strain on these muscles and nerves of the otherwise severe distension before delivery.

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, 515 Palm St. Scranton, Pa., says:

"I am willing and anxious to tell any mother about Mother's Friend. It did me so much good that I wouldn't be without it if it cost $5.00 a bottle. With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I only had a nurse, we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Many doctors and nurses recommend Mother's Friend. It contains no narcotics, or habit-forming drugs and is perfectly harmless. All drug stores carry Mother's Friend.

WARNING: Avoid using plain oils, greases and substitutes—they act only on the skin and may cause harm without doing good.

GOLF SEASON OPENS OFFICIALLY MAY 8

Preceding the Opening of the Course a Match Will Be Played Sunday Afternoon Beginning at 2 O'clock—The Public is Invited to be Present.

The 1922 Golf season opens officially Monday, May 8th. On this date the Nicholas Park course will be opened for the season. For the first time since the days of the old Country Club, Jacksonville will have one of the best Golf Courses in state of Illinois under the direction of a professional.

Preceding the opening of the course a match will be played Sunday at 2:00 o'clock between Marcy Osborne and Leo Flood, the 1921 champion and runner-up, Mr. A. M. Masters and Jack Keywood. The match will be in form of four ball foursome, Masters and Keywood giving their opponents the brisk of three permitting them to take three strokes at any place they choose in the course of 18 hole match.

This will be the first time that young Jack Keywood of Hirshman, England secured by Municipal Golf Club as professional, has ever played in public before a Jacksonville audience.

The Municipal Golf course is directly under the supervision of the Park Board. J. A. Hopper, Superintendent of the grounds has been very busy during the past month in preparing for the opening. The course is now in better condition than ever before. The Municipal Golf Club were enabled by the sale of season tickets to secure Mr. Keywood's services for the course. Keywood has built one entirely new model green which is a work of art and will not be excelled by any green on any course in this part of Illinois. This new model was built on new No. 4 hole. It contains many features found only on English greens and although it is to be sanded for the present, when completed it will be a grass green. This work had to be postponed until next fall.

Course Changed.

The course when officially opened will be changed. The new No. 1 hole will be placed at the old No. 9. Persons will begin east of the pavillion. The course will end at the old No. 8 directly in front of the pavilion.

Signs have been posted instructing players to start at the No. 1 Tee.

A new bulletin board is being constructed to be placed at No. 1 hole and will contain the ground rules of the course and also for announcements for tournaments and special events.

The new score card which is now being put out is complete and contains the yardage, par, bogey for course and tabulated score for 18 holes. Cards will be provided free of charge for all players holding season tickets.

Caddies have been placed under supervision of Lloyd Read, chairman of that committee. Mr. Read has secured twenty-five competent boys who will be provided with official badges and no other caddies will be allowed on the course. Only the most reliable boys have been engaged and have been instructed by Mr. Read with view of them becoming specially proficient in their work. No games of chance will be permitted with the boys this year and it will be kept strictly to business all the time they are in the park. Mr. Read has requested them to meet for additional instructions at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at pavilion at the park.

The new flags will be flying for the first time Sunday at 2 o'clock and visitors have been invited to see the opening match.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed will olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

WHEAT PRICES TAKE UPWARD SWING

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 3.—Announcement of vessel charters for the shipment of 8,000 bushels of wheat out of Chicago by lake routes gave an upward swing to wheat prices today but much of the gains failed to hold. The market closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 1⅛c higher with May $1.44⅞ to $1.45 and July $1.28½ to $1.28⅝.

Corn closed ⅝c to 1c up, oats at an advance of ⅛c@¼c to ⅜c@½c and provisions unchanged to 35c higher.

Before the upward tendency of the wheat market was checked, the May delivery touched $1.46, a rise of 2⅛c a bushel over night.

The descent derived some of the impetus from higher quotations at Liverpool, and this fact as well as the news of vessel charters indicating a liberal outward movement of grain from here led to anxiety on part of some May sorts to stop losses. Conditions affecting the wheat market were largely reversed neverthe less during the last hour and for a brief time prices were breaking rapidly, May showing a drop of 3⅛c from early top figures. The setback was partly due to profit taking on the part of traders who had been on the buying side of the market before noon. A more powerful bearish influence came from reports that wheat had been bought at Missouri markets and at Buffalo and Toledo to come here and that Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth were also to contribute to the Chicago supply. On the other hand pit shorts were covering just before the close and the market was again showing a rally. Deliveries on May contracts today were 180,000 bushels.

Delay in planting together with talk of broader export demand inspired active buying of corn.

Oats were firmer with corn.

Higher quotations on hogs gave a life to provisions.

CASH GRAIN REPORT

By Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 3.—Premiums and discounts were weaker for wheat in the cash market today. Red wheat basis were unchanged to 1c lower, except No. 4 which was 2 cents to 3c lower. Chicago houses reported 300,000 bushels of wheat brought at Missouri markets, 87,000 bushels at Toledo and 168,000 bushels at Buffalo to come here. The seaboard said export business was quiet. Corn was good demand and the market closed ½c better. Trading basis were unchanged.

Shipping sales were 300,000 bushels including 275,000 bushels taken by exporters.

The seaboard said some oats were worked for export.

FALLING OFF IN DEMAND FOR MOTORS

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Apart from the oils, which monopolized the greater part of speculative attention with several independent steels, shippings and coppers, today's stock market session was more or less negative in its net results.

Under guidance of Associated Oil which registered a further gain of 6¾ points or a total of 13¾ for two days, various issues of that type changed hands in enormous lots at advances of 2 to 6 points.

There was a marked falling off in the demand for motors, equipments and affiliated industrials which gave pronounced weight to the March-April rise. Sales amounted to 1,350,000 shares.

An initial quotation of 4½ per cent for call money, the maximum opening rate in several weeks indicated that demand funds were les plentiful than in April. Time money rates were unaltered, but in that quarter also offerings were smaller.

Liberty bonds closed chiefly at moderate declines.

Today's sales (par value) aggregated $17,482,000.

The many friends of Porter Corrington will be interested in knowing that he is now in charge of the Pillsbury Flour Co. sub-branch office at Alton. Mr. Corrington has for the past eight months traveled for the company, his territory covering southern Illinois and Kentucky. His services have been greatly appreciated, as is evidenced by the recent promotion. The Alton office is under the jurisdiction of the St. Louis branch of the company.

A TRIBUTE TO THE NAME CARTER

The death of the writer's life long friend, S. W. Carter, prompts him to add a tribute to that worthy name.

Rev. William Carter was the first pastor of the Congregational church of this city and a man greatly beloved by all who knew him. He later lived in Pittsfield where he ended his days respected and beloved by all who knew him. He was a wonderful force for good and leaves several children to honor his memory.

His brother Ebenezer lived in this county and was in many ways different from his clerical relative. He was a man of iron and the few pictures of him show a person with set jaw and stern countenance belonging to a man who feared only his Maker.

He was ever an active member of the underground railroad and many were the thrilling adventures he had. He was the father of three children, two daughters, one the wife of the late J. C. Fairbank and who died many years ago. Her children are S. A. Fairbank, Mrs. Charles H. Smith and Mrs. M. O. Mathews, all of this city. Ebenezer Carter was a man who asked to know his duty and that was all. It was done regardless of cost. He also had one son, William Chauncey, who lived on the home place two miles south of the city and later in the city.

Like his father, Chauncey Carter did what he deemed to be right even tho the heavens might fall. He was born soon enough to have some part in the underground railroad business in which his father was such an active participant. At one time he meant to go to St. Louis, but he was warned to stay away as he was the son of that ---- abolitionist and it might go hard with him.

He braved all danger and went and came back unharmed as the men who wanted to take his life deemed it best to let the boy alone and no doubt they acted wisely.

Chauncey Carter was alderman several times and was of great value to the city. He loved to do good and to help young people who were striving for an education and many were the favors he showed such. When the writer came to Jacksonville, a struggling boy, Mr. Carter offered to aid him and asked if a loan wouldn't be acceptable. It certainly was and he asked how much was wanted. Timidly the writer suggested he could get along on some $350.

"You don't open your mouth wide enough," was the reply and a check for $500 was handed out. This took place twice and note interest and security were not asked tho the loans were repaid and never will be kind donor be forgotten.

LAST RITES HELD FOR S. W. CARTER

Funeral of Well Known Citizen Held Wednesday Afternoon — Dr. R. O. Post was in charge.

The funeral of the late Samuel W. Carter attracted a large and sympathetic audience at the Congregational church yesterday. The scene was made doubly impressive by a company of Knights Templar in the beautiful uniform of the order. A fine custom also of that order is to station a body guard at the residence of the deceased while the remains are there.

The services were in charge of Rev. R. O. Post who conducted them thruout in his usual very beautiful and eloquent manner.

A talented choir consisting of Mrs. T. P. Carter, Mrs. Mabel Mathews Gregory, Messrs M. L. Robinson and Roger Carter sang most beautifully "Jerusalem the Golden" and "Abide With Me." Willard Wesner played the organ in his usual finished manner.

Dr. Post read a part of the psalm beginning, "Lord thou hast been our dwelling place." Other parts were also read and then the speaker referred to the mighty genius of Moses and Paul, men whom the world has hardly seen equaled. Paul challenges the deepest thinking and leads to vast spiritual treasures. In proof of that the speaker read from the immortal 15th chapter of I Corinthians where Paul answers the doubts of the dwellers in the great city regarding the future of the soul.

He dwelt with emphasis on the assurance that Christ rose from the dead else the faith of His followers were vain and they were of all men most miserable. He then went on to the explanation where the difference between a natural body and a spiritual body is shown and closed with the triumphant exclamation, "Oh Death Where is Thy Sting: Oh Grave Where is Thy Victory?"

He feelingly referred to the fact that the last three funerals held in the church had all been those of the Carter name. Twelve weeks ago Wallace Carter was laid to rest; six weeks ago Mrs. Hannah Carter's friends gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to her memory and now we are here to say the last word for Samuel W. Carter.

He then said in part:

More than 75 years ago Rev. William Carter was pastor of this church and here he did much to mould the character of the organization which has been such a force for good in this community. At that time Truman Post was a teacher in Illinois College and was not a professed believer in Christ. He was a guest at the home of Gov. Duncan and seated at the table the governor's wife asked him to say grace, but he was obliged to confess he was not a professed follower of the Master. The intrepid little woman said the short prayer herself and incident so impressed the teacher that he decided he wanted to be a follower of the Redeemer. He did so and later became pastor of the church and removed to St. Louis to take the pastorate of a large church there.

Relates Family History.

In my childhood our family lived in Logansport, Indiana, and one of my father's dearest friends was Chauncey Carter, brother of the first pastor of his church. He was a wise man, had little to say, but his advice was many times sought by those who knew him best. He was a strong politician and while he didn't make speeches he did advise his party and his counsels were always heeded and valued.

His brother Ebenezer lived in this vicinity and was the father of Chauncey Carter, father of the brother whose funeral we are attending today. In early life he married Julia Wolcott and lived two miles south of the city. They were the parents of five sons and one daughter. That was always a delightful home to visit and the Maker was always honored studiously. The soil was good and the success of the father excellent. Peace and harmony ever dwelt there and love was the ruling motive of the place.

Mrs. Carter was a lady of superior mind and I never talked with her without getting something to remember. She could feel the truth and could talk as well as any one I ever knew. Both of them felt the sacredness of human rights and today it is a rare honor to say "My father's house was a station of the underground railroad."

In the early days of the state such men as well as others wrought for the freedom of the slave and the day will come when the name of Lovejoy will be ranked next to Abraham Lincoln, as a promoter of human liberty.

In early life Samuel married Hannah Joy. He loved her and made a good and attentive husband. He was ever devoted to her welfare and happiness and when she was laid away he lingered only a few weeks and then went to join her. His married life was spent partly in this county and then for some years in Kansas. Later he removed to Joy Prairie and remained there several years and then to the city and at the age of 73 years he is gone. With Paul we may say now "O death where is thy sting; O grave where is thy victory?"

The speaker then recited the beautiful poem of Tennyson, "When I Cross Over The Bar" and added, may God give us all grace to pray that we may see our Pilot.

At the close of the services the remains were borne to their last resting place in Diamond Grove cemetery by these brothers, Truman, William and Walter, and T. H. Pratt, Ernest Ransdell and Fred Benson.

There were many lovely flowers and these were cared for by Mrs. T. H. Pratt, Miss Georgia Fairbank, Mrs. O. O. Sadler and Miss Helen Carter.

C. M. Strawn has returned from Chicago by auto and reports a strenuous journey. The regular distance is 290 miles but he says he had to travel 410 miles to get back from the windy city. Along the river the ground was especially bad and many detours were necessary which made the distance so long. He says that in some places the ruts are so deep a car drags its axles. He left Monday and reached home yesterday noon glad to be back and hoping that the next time he goes the roads will be all right.

A TRIBUTE TO MR. THOMAS WORTHINGTON

In the death of Mr. Thomas Worthington the Board of Directors of the Social Service League feels that it has sustained an irreparable loss. His counsel in the affairs of the Board was deliberate, wise, fair and candid. When circumstances permitted he was a regular attendant at its meetings and took an active interest in the business of the organization.

We recognize in Mr. Worthington a worthy citizen, an able lawyer and a hearty promoter of projects intended for the welfare of humanity. With clearness of vision and broadness of mind he rendered service in educational, civic, political, professional and philanthropical work which placed a high value on his ability and made demand for that which he had to give.

To the family of our esteemed friend we wish to extend deepest sympathy, for our loss which is keen cannot be compared to theirs. May the Heavenly Father sustain and comfort them.

Your committee recommends that a page in the minutes of the Board of Directors be set aside for this tribute and that a copy be sent to the family and one to the daily newspapers for publication.

NEEDS REPAIRS.

Auto travelers from Springfield report some of the state road in bad condition. There are places badly needing scraping or dragging while in others there are spots where planks were laid during the winter and have not been removed. Of course it is a busy time just now and men have little time for road work but a small amount of labor sometimes will accomplish wonders.

A SUCCESSFUL MUSICIAN

A recent copy of the leading paper of Liberal, Kansas, contains a glowing account of Easter services in the Presbyterian church of that place. The music, which was the leading feature, was under the direction of Mrs. James L. Darst, a daughter of Rev. G. W. Scrimger, formerly of this city and well known here. He is now pastor of the M. E. church in Petersburg.

The paper says in the morning the music, under the leadership of Mrs. Darst was of a high order. In the evening the house was crowded to its full capacity. The hearts of the people were delighted by the melody of "Two Lodks," and the chorus of the choir. Mrs. Darst sang with sweetness and power "O Divine Redeemer" and the grand notes of that selection were a fitting close to teh exercises of the day. To Mrs. Darst and Mrs. Loren Wilkins who accompanied on the piano, all the services of song, all the members of the church and congregatioon feel especially indebted.
